Q1) Read the following passage and answer the questions given below (5 Marks)

Abdul "Greetings Your Majesty. I am just a common man living in the nearby village. My name is Abdul Qadir. I am in trouble. Only you can help me." Abdul Qadir then told his story to Emperor Akbar. He had gone to Mecca with his wife a year ago. He stored his life's savings and treasures in a small box. He had to keep the box safe with someone as he had no successor of his own. So, he entrusted his friend Mohammad Nazir with the box. Abdul "Your Majesty, it was last month that we returned. Even after asking many times, Mohammad Nazir never gave back the box to me. Moreover, he says I never gave the box to him at all. Now, what should I do your Majesty?" Akbar "That is very unfair!" said Akbar. He reassured Qadir that his belongings will be returned to him soon.
